

Painting the Portrait From Life

A five-day workshop by Martinho Correia

May 5-9, 2012

Workshop held at WindSong - 20543 96th Ave. Langley, BC V1M 3W3

This course is an intensive five days in which students will produce a portrait in the traditional manner. From preparatory studies and drawing through to the completed painting, all stages of the painting process will be explained.

REGISTER EARLY!

Reservations are recommended as student numbers are purposely limited to allow for a high degree of individual attention.

Deadline April 5, 2012

Call to reserve seat - Lalita Hamill 604-882-1214

www.martinhoart.com/workshop

Workshop held at WindSong - 20543 96th Ave. Langley, BC V1M 3W3

Martinho Correia has spent the last 11 years studying painting and teaching traditional painting methods in Italy. Most recently, he finished his Masters in Architecture, Sacred Art and Liturgy at the European University in Rome. His private atelier in Portugal opened the summer of 2011.